

REAL ESTATE NEWS.

The customary Monday quiet prevailed in the realty market yesterday, and only a small number of sales at private contract was reported. The three sales held in the auction were the result of foreclosure proceedings, and each of these parcels was secured by a bidder.

The most important sale at private contract was that of a plot of seven lots on 36th street, near Second avenue.

The executors of the estate of John T. Martin, deceased, have scheduled for public sale at the Brooklyn Real Estate Exchange the lots belonging to the estate in the borough of Brooklyn. The realty holdings of this estate will be sold in the linear residence sections, and the disposition of the property will be watched with interest. The sale is to be held to-day.
